2. Pitching

How do I get the attention of the right person?

What can I do to reduce friction?

Pitching Process

Finding the Gate Keeper

- Tech Recruiters/Data Scientists
 - "site:linkedin.com Instacart technical recruiter"
- Asses size of company, data science team
- When in doubt, reach out

Goal: Get your story in the right hands

Make everyone's job easier!

You get one shot, if that, to leave your mark.

Make it easy on the gate keeper.

Email Pitch

Quick intro

Name, background, Galvanize (fka Zipfian Academy), link to the program (alumni), "I'm a data scientist"

Final Project

Easy, digestible, appeal in under 20 seconds, sharable, readable

Express Interest to Learn More

"I'm excited about the interesting problems XYZ is working on" "I'd love to find out more about the data team at XYZ"

Subject: "Introduction - Kamradt"

Hint: You're going to be forwarded

Final Project

Visual > Text > Code

Final project MUST have a web presence

Make it easy for others to share and digest

r/dataisbeautiful, r/datascience, blogs, newsletters, twitter, HN, DT

Goal:

Win over the gate keeper and do a phone screen

Let your work do the talking

3.

Interviewing

How can I most efficiently convey my skills?

How can I prep for calls?

Step in your interviewer's shoes
Do your prep!

Interview Prep

- No excuses
- Recruiters are your friend
- Do your research on interviewer
 - blog, linkedin, articles, interests, tech stack
- Questions are GOLDEN!
 - Google: "XYZ company news"
 - Ask about role/responsibility transitions

Goal: No surprises, be prepared

Interview Key Points

- Most common questions
 - Tell me about your background, why us/our data?
- Open phone call light hearted
- Sharp direction > General > "Down for anything"
- It's ok to not know an answer, don't panic
 - "That's an awesome/interesting question, I'd love to do more research and put together an answer"
- Re-write your resume tip of your tongue
 - Ditto for DS prep
- SQL 0/3

Goal:

Efficiently deliver your preparation
